

CRIMINAL CASE HOLDING OVER INTO SATURDAY

The case of the State of Texas vs. J. C. McWhorter in which the defendant is charged by grand jury indictment with a statutory offense, alleged to have been committed upon a minor daughter, continues to hold the attention of the Forty-seventh District court today.

Judge Henry S. Bishop declined to conduct a night session last night, when he was convinced that this extra work would not conclude the matter. Instead, he ordered that witnesses be instructed to be present early Saturday forenoon, in an effort to close the case within the day.

Many witnesses have been called in this case, principally from among the citizens living in the vicinity of the McWhorter home, and those who have known of his habits and modes of life here and elsewhere, and relatives of the girl who is the complaining witness. Among the witnesses for the state are an aunt of the girl alleged to have been injured by the defendant, and a physician also from that place, who was called in to treat the complainant.

It is estimated that the greater part of Saturday will be required in which to finish the testimony and other details incident to passing the matter into the hands of the jurors. There has been a sustained interest in the case, and a considerable number of spectators have been persistent in their attendance.

PERSISTENT OIL RUMORS REACH CITY FROM FIELD

During Friday persistent rumors of the most flattering showings of oil in Smith-Capers and Gulf No. 1 were heard in Amarillo. These rumors, as always heretofore, were just as stoutly denied, and in their stead statements were offered to the effect that no new fact has been discovered in the field. It was admitted, however, that favorable developments will create no real surprise among the operators with a comparatively short time. This is taken to mean that the formations in which drilling is being done are of a satisfactory, or promising character, and definite hopes are entertained regarding them.

WAGE DISCUSSION HELD BY PANHANDLE EDITORS

because of the economic conditions.

Discussion of the subject was made by R. H. Nichols, editor of the Daily Tribune, and J. Lindsay Nunn, general manager of The Daily News. The former said that business firms had been taking their losses and that it should be expected that labor should take its reductions.

Mr. Nunn said that the amount of wages was not near so important as the results given. If labor can be made efficient, then he said that it should not be a hard problem to reach agreement on wage scales. Problems in labor at The Daily News were then related.

C. W. Warwick moved that a committee of three be appointed to submit a questionnaire dealing with wages, advertising and subscription rates, volume of business and employees, telling whether the number had been decreased or increased. Sam Branswell of Clarence News, T. A. Landers of McLean News, and T. P. Loomis of the Canadian Record were appointed on this committee.

J. W. Cheney of the Southwest Plainsman, in discussing wages pointed out the fact that good wages means efficiency and showed that oftentimes jobs were spoiled because of inefficient help.

Informal Talks Made.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn.—"Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. I. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.
